the fourth book in the european public investment outlook series focuses on the urgent issue of how to finance needed investment in critical tangible and intangible infrastructure given high levels of public debt a thorny problem facing many governments across europe drawing on expertise from academics researchers at public policy institutes and international governance bodies the contributors analyse the current situation and prospects and propose feasible solutions financing investment in times of high public debt offers a powerful combination of high level analysis of cross continental policies and trends with close examination of specific contexts in france italy germany and spain the chapters in part ii explore challenges including how to finance climate investments the extent to which national promotional banks can offer solutions eu budget reform and recent trends in tax progressivity this book is essential reading for economists policymakers and anyone interested in implementing and financing public policy in europe and wanting to better understand the intricacies of eu governance and institutions this book explores the intrinsically multiscale issue of renewable energy transition from a local national and transnational perspective and provides insights into current developments in the upper rhine region that can serve as an international model organised around the exploration of stakeholder issues the volume first describes a framework for public action and modelling and then articulates a triple complementary focus from the viewpoint of law economics and sociology this multidisciplinary approach is anchored in the social sciences but also explores the ways in which technological issues are increasingly debated in the implementation of the ecological transition with a focus on the upper rhine region of france germany and switzerland the contributions throughout analyse how concrete regional projects emerge and whether they are carried out by local authorities private energy groups network associations or committed citizens from this it appears that real world energy transition modes can be best understood as permanent transactional processes involving institutional regulations economic levers and barriers and social interactions this book will be of interest to advanced students and scholars focusing on renewable energy transition stakeholder issues environment and sustainability studies as well as those who are interested in the methodological aspects of the social sciences especially within the fields of sociology law economy geography political science urbanism and planning
